6. Please explain your commitment to the mission of the foundation, including brief examples of your experience with feminism and social change.

7. Please explain how you meet the five criteria described in the Call for Board Applications (comfortable identifying as a feminist or womanist; compatible with collaborative decision making; dedicated to acting in the best interests of KFW; open to new ideas, and willing to work with diverse points of view).

8. Please describe your interests and skills.

9. Please list any work, volunteer experiences, or membership on boards of organizations related to the mission of KFW.

10. Please describe your experience or understanding of collective decision-making, noting how you might deal with Board or staff members who do not agree with you.

11. Please describe your experience in working with women of various socioeconomic classes, ages, ethnicities, geographic locations, and educational backgrounds.

12. This year, the foundation especially encourages applications from women who meet one or more of the following Board designated priorities: ages 19 through 34; women from Congressional Districts 1 or 6; women of color; women who are immigrants. KFW also seeks applications from women with experience or willingness to learn high-level budgeting and investments. Please note if you are a member of one or more of these priority groups and how this influences what you would bring to the KFW Board.

KFW Board Members will review all applications, interview finalists by phone, and reach a final decision by June 15, 2008. All applicants will be notified as soon as possible following the final decision.

Please note: If submitting an application by email, you should receive a confirmation of receipt within 5 days. If you do not, please contact KFW.
